

Two Of Our Students To Attend NC State's Engineering Summer Program

We are excited to announce that two of our students were granted full scholarships to attend NC State's engineering summer camp! Clifton and Tykiria will learn in collaborative groups how engineers help society, and they experience engineering themselves through hands-on, creative investigations and design activities.